No menu, no direction. Just a point and click version of Chinese chess with funny animations. It is definitely not worth $10 though...

Edit: the menus are triggered by holding down the right mouse button. Ten levels of difficulties to choose from. But still...

Edit: To me the game is fun, but the pricing is just too much.. After going through this game and finishing it, I have to say that I've thoroughly enjoyed playing the game.

The game in itself has lots of fun moments and 4th wall breaking scenes as well.

The game is fairly fast paced and I found myself hardly having to grind, but by nature I grind myself by killing pretty much everything I see.

I'd give this game a solid 8/10 for enjoyment and story, the scripting could've been better so that gets a 6/10.. Program has a bug in it. It shifts orbs sometimes instead of shooting which ruins the games.. Amazing game, may be 8-bit but will still give you a scare at certain times, havent completed it yet but getting there. Too also add, now every coner I look I brace for something being there, IRL and any game XD.. This game is incredible. I'm not usually a fan of puzzle games, but I livestreamed this entire playthrough and was glued to the screen for it's entirety. Just when I thought the game was done, it gives me a link to a god damn website for phase 2 of the puzzle. To this day, I'm still stuck on the website - and I'm still in love with the game.. a game that shows animals mating in one of the previews?

Waiting for the Game of the Year edition to come out.. Minimalist and beautiful graphics, yes, if you like this sort of thing, and it has nice sound and atmosphere, but I don't get why release it with such poor controls... It could have been an enjoyable short walking simulator, but as it stands I don't recommend it.. Single Player Career mode unplayable due to game crash. Not real impressed after spending over $100 on the game. No help from the developers on fixing the issue. Shame Shame Shame. GREAT GAME ♥♥♥♥♥. I really like this game! Very simple and to the point with relaxing tropical background music. I rate it a solid 8/10 bananas! Good job Joystick Knights, I am eager to see what you come out with next!
